Fast Facts About Pre-Law

How do I choose a major?

- Select a major that you find interesting; there is not one major that will prepare you for law school better than another.
- Within your selected major and elective courses, select courses that emphasize the following skills:
  - Critical Thinking
  - Writing
  - Research
  - Public Speaking
  - Logic
  - Reading & Condensing Information

Where do I find law school information?

- If you are interested in attending law school, create a Law School Admission Council (LSAC) account by visiting: https://os.lsac.org/Logon/SignUp.aspx

What is LSAC?

- The Law School Admission Council (LSAC) manages the entire application process for law school. That includes:
  - Law School Admission Test (LSAT) registration and results
  - Law school applications and document collection
  - Data and ranking information for law schools
  - Information about recruiting events and forums
  - FREE test preparation! Learn more by visiting: https://lsac.org/jd/lsat/preparing-for-the-lsat
