Census Date Policy

Jacksonville University's Census Date is the day on which course enrollments are finalized and certified for all reporting purposes. Student should be aware that the Census Date is the deadline for many forms and functions.

The Census Date at Jacksonville University is the Monday of the 3rd week of classes for Fall and Spring semesters. The actual date is published each year by the Registrar. If the date needs to be reconsidered due to extenuating circumstances any semester, the decision shall be made jointly by the Registrar and Executive Director of Institutional Analytics, Effectiveness, and Strategic Planning and forward to the Cabinet for approval.
