Human Trafficking
Human Trafficking is a Form of Modern-Day Slavery
MODERN DAY SLAVERY: A LOOK AT HUMAN TRAFFICKING
EXPLOITATION

- Victims may be forced into commercial sex or forced labor
- Traffickers use physical force, fraud, or psychological coercion to achieve exploitation.
- Victims include foreign nationals, U.S. citizen adults, and increasingly, U.S. citizen minors.
EXPLOITATION

• According to the Family Violence Prevention Fund.... “28% of trafficking survivors in one study said they came into contact with a healthcare provider during the trafficking situation, and were not recognized.”
We Can Do Something to Help Stop Human Trafficking
Questions for Our Panelist:

Why is there not more public outrage?
Panelist?

What are some of the public policy issues that need to be addressed at the state level regarding this critical issue?
Panelist?

Why are emergency department and EMS personnel critical in the mission to discover/uncover human trafficking and provide interventions?
What are some common misconceptions healthcare providers and the public have regrading human trafficking?
Panelist?

• What are hospitals, EDs and EMS agencies doing to improve their recognition of human trafficking?
• Are there model programs?
Panelist?

• Are there differences in how minor human trafficking victims are handled or evaluated versus adult victims?
Panelist?

• What services are available locally for survivors of trafficking?
Panelist?

• What are the greatest barriers to addressing the needs of trafficking survivors in our community? State?
Panelist?

• What are the greatest barriers to addressing the needs of trafficking survivors in our community? State?
Panelist?

• How are trafficking survivors included as part of the dialogue locally in addressing this critical issue?
Panelist?

• What are some of the public policy issues that need to be addressed at the state level regarding this critical issue?
National Human Trafficking Hotline

(1-888-3737-888)